Marie Nimier is the author of 9 novels, 5 children's books, radio dramas, and songs. Her first novel, La Sirène (1985), won the attention of the Académie française, and several of her works have been translated into other languages (German, Italian, Japanese, Greek, etc.), including the English translation of La Girafe (1993) as The Giraffe (1995) and L'Hypnotisme à la portée de tous (1992) as Hypnotism Made Easy (1996). Her 2004 novel La Reine du Silence is a finalist for the prestigious Prix Goncourt as well as the Grand Prix du Roman de l'Académie française.

Hervé di Rosa is an internationally known artist whose prolific body of work is inspired by the formal traditions of painting as well as the art forms of contemporary popular culture. His numerous books include illustrations of works for children – like Etna, with Marie Nimier, and Jungle, with composer Michel Redolfi. Among his many accomplishments, Di Rosa has produced an animated series for French television, and is the founder and president of the Musée International des Arts Modestes.
