

LET'S TALK ABOUT IT!

JEWISH LITERATURE

Identity and Imagination

A READING AND DISCUSSION SERIES IN AMERICA'S LIBRARIES

A MIND OF HER OWN

Fathers and Daughters in a Changing World

Teve the Dairyman by Sholem Aleichem

Bread Givers by Anzia Yezierska

1185 Park Avenue: A Memoir by Anne Roiphe

American Pastoral by Philip Roth

Bee Season by Myla Goldberg

Join us for a reading and discussion series like no other. Led by UF English Professor Andrew Gordon, Let's Talk About It: Jewish Literature will feature lively discussion of five books on a common theme in Jewish literature and culture.

All five sessions will take place in the Hillel at UF library, located in Norman H. Lipoff Hall at 2020 W. University Avenue. Plenty of free parking is available across University Avenue at the O'Connell Center.

Contact Chelsea Dinsmore at 273-0369 or chelseaz@ufl.edu to register or for more information about the program. Or visit the UF Libraries Homepage at <http://www.uflib.ufl.edu>

This program is produced by the UFLibraires and co-sponsored by Hillel at UF and the University of Florida Center for Jewish Studies.

Presented by Nextbook and the American Library Association

nextbook

www.ala.org/publicprograms
www.nextbook.org